

18th Annual Mid-South Motorcycle Festival & Boss Hoss National Rally

September 21-23~ Paris Landing State Park, near Paris, TN

You don't want to miss the grand southern hospitality and thousands of dollars in cash prizes and trophies awarded every year at the Mid-South Motorcycle Festival and Boss Hoss National Rally. Motorcycle enthusiast from around the world travel to the shores of the magnificent Kentucky Lake to partake in the breathtaking riding provided by the scenic highways of the Tennessee River valley. With more than 26 years of history behind the awe-inspiring Boss Hoss motorcycles, taking a test ride and feasting your eyes on the largest gathering of chrome and two- and three- wheeled horsepower is breathtaking, don't miss your chance to see Boss Hoss Cycles, Inc. with old to new, mild to wild all there on display.

Three action-packed days of entertainment for everyone. Thousands of dollars in prize money will be up for grabs in the daily motorcycle events, Friday and Saturday Bike Show mid-day; Patrons will enjoy vending, parades, bike show, musical entertainment and nightly social functions. Topping off the weekend's events a drawing supporting the Shriners Hospitals for Children will make one lucky individual the proud new owner of a 2017 Boss Hoss Trike.
